

The Atlanta Toulouse Sister Cities Committee

Invites you to enjoy

Two Exhibitions presented by

The high museum of art

Toulouse-Lautrec & Friends: The Irene and Howard Stein Collection

Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec was born in 1864 and was a popular artist and personality in turn-of-the-century Paris.

Toulouse-Lautrec prints captured the bars, cafes, brothels, and cabarets of Montmartre during an epoch when Paris was considered the pleasure capital of the world.

Henri Cartier-Bresson: The Modern Century

Henri Cartier-Bresson (1908–2004) is one of the most accomplished figures in the history of photography. For more than three decades Cartier-Bresson was the keenest observer of global human affairs and one of the great portraitists of the twentieth century.

When: Saturday, February 19, 2011; 4:00 p.m.

WHERE: High Museum of Art, 1280 Peachtree Road, Atlanta, GA

Tickets: High Museum of Art members –FREE ADMISSION

Adult tickets: $18.00; Senior tickets $15.00 Call 404-733-5000.

To buy tickets and for members to reserve their spots.

Advance reservations are required.

REMINDER: Members need to call in reservations as well.

Join us for dinner afterwards at

Atmosphere Restaurant, 1620 Piedmont Avenue, 678-702-1620

For dinner reservations, please email Nancy Harris at nancycamille@aol.com

no later than Monday, February 13, 2010..

Feel free to join us for dinner, even if you are not going to the High Museum of Art.

