YOUR WEEK IN GRAND EST SEPT 25 - 5 OCT, 2026

DAY 1 • REIMS

Upon arrival in Reims, settle into the refined atmosphere of the Champagne capital. Spend the afternoon discovering the city's Gothic jewel, Notre-Dame de Reims Cathedral, where French kings were crowned, followed by a visit to the historic Palais du Tau. In the evening, gather for a welcome dinner at a local brasserie, beginning your journey in the heart of Champagne.

DAY 2 • REIMS | CHAMPAGNE

This morning, visit the prestigious Taittinger Champagne Caves, descending into ancient chalk cellars carved beneath the city for an exclusive tasting at one of Champagne's most renowned houses. Enjoy a gourmet lunch at Les Crayères, surrounded by manicured gardens and Belle Époque elegance, before returning to Reims for a relaxed afternoon at leisure.

DAY 3 • ÉPERNAY | CHÂLONS-EN-CHAMPAGNE

Journey through the heart of Champagne, beginning in Épernay along the celebrated Avenue de Champagne, home to iconic houses such as Moët & Chandon and Perrier-Jouët. Continue to Châlons-en-Champagne for a stroll along its flower-lined canals, often called "Little Venice of Champagne." Visit Fort de la Pompelle, a powerful symbol of wartime resilience, before returning to Reims for an evening at leisure.

DAY 4 • VERDUN | METZ

After breakfast, depart for Verdun, where history comes alive during a guided visit to Fort de Douaumont and the surrounding World War I battlefields. In the afternoon, continue to Metz and visit the city's historic synagogue, a testament to its rich Jewish heritage. Settle into Metz for the evening.

DAY 5 • METZ | NANCY | ART NOUVEAU

Begin the morning in Metz with a guided ride on the Petit Train and a visit to the impressive Saint-Étienne Cathedral, famed for its exceptional stained glass. Continue to Nancy for lunch and the discovery of the UNESCO-listed Place Stanislas, followed by a walk through the city's elegant Art Nouveau district. Visit the Musée de l'École de Nancy before returning to Metz.

DAY 6 • LORRAINE | LALIQUE | STRASBOURG

Depart Metz and stop at the Lorraine American Cemetery, a moving tribute to fallen soldiers. Continue to the Musée Lalique, celebrating the artistry of crystal and glassmaking, an ideal stop en route to Alsace. Arrive in Strasbourg and settle into its historic center for the evening.

DAY 7 • STRASBOURG

Spend a full day discovering Strasbourg's highlights. Wander through the charming canals of Petite France, explore the vibrant city center, and admire the soaring Strasbourg Cathedral. Enjoy lunch in town, followed by a scenic boat cruise along the River Ill. The afternoon is free for shopping, café time, or an optional architectural walk through the European Quarter.

DAY 8 • NORTHERN ALSACE | HERITAGE & CRAFT

Today explores a different side of Alsace. Visit the Musée Judéo-Alsacien and the Château du Haut-Barr, dramatically perched above the Vosges forests. Continue to Villa Meteor, one of Alsace's oldest breweries, to discover traditional beer-making methods. The sites are within short driving distances, making the day flexible and well-paced. Return to Strasbourg in the evening.

DAY 9 • ALSACE | COLMAR | MONT SAINTE-ODILE

Follow the picturesque Alsace Wine Route, beginning in the village of Riquewihr. Continue to Colmar for lunch and a stroll through its colorful old town, with a visit to the synagogue. Later, enjoy a wine tasting in Eguisheim, then ascend to Mont Sainte-Odile, offering sweeping views over the Alsace plain. Return to Strasbourg for a farewell evening.

DAY 10 • RETURN HOME

Travel by train to Paris Airport (CDG) for your flight home, concluding your journey through the wonders of Northeastern France.
